

DEL NORTE INDIAN EDUCATION CENTER

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA
INDIAN DEVELOPMENT
COUNCIL

DNIEC's Winter Garden Planted by the After-School Program Students

Inside the November 2020 Issue:

- DNIEC's Reopening
- Winter Garden
- Online Cultural Presentation Series
- TUPE Art Contest Winners

DNIEC's Reopening

DNIEC Reopened in Early November and Planted a Winter Garden!

DNIEC has successfully reopened! The DNIEC After-School Program began on November 3, 2020. The center is hosting two small cohorts of 6 students, twice per week, Monday-Thursdays.

Grades K-8 are currently meeting at the education center for the after-school program. Middle School students will be moved to Crescent Elk Room 25, when COVID-19 restrictions are lifted.

The DNIEC students receive tutoring, cultural enrichment activities and a nutritious snack when they attend. DNIEC students planted a winter garden and are growing, cabbage, carrots and radishes, potatoes, garlic!

Applications are available at the DNIEC or available online at ncidc.org, under Education Services. Contact Angela Davis at (707) 460-6592 for more information.

DNIEC'S ONLINE CULTURAL PRESENTATION SERIES

DNIEC's Cultural Consultants Shared Their Knowledge Online

DNIEC's Online Cultural Presentations were shared throughout the first trimester of school. The presentations were funded by the American Indian Education Center grant from the California Department of Education.

Cultural Presentations shared during the first trimester of school included, "Yurok Basket Weaving Materials Gathering and Processing" by Rosie Donahue.

To celebrate Native American Month, NCIDC will share an online cultural presentation about Acorn Gathering and Processing by Teresina Obie will be November 23, 2020.

Artwork by La-yeq Alameda

DNIEC Congratulates TUPE Art Contest Winners!

Grades K-5:

First Place:

- La-yeq Alameda

Second Place:

- Saydee James

Third Place:

- Sophia Gillis

Honorable Mention: William Gillis and Jace James

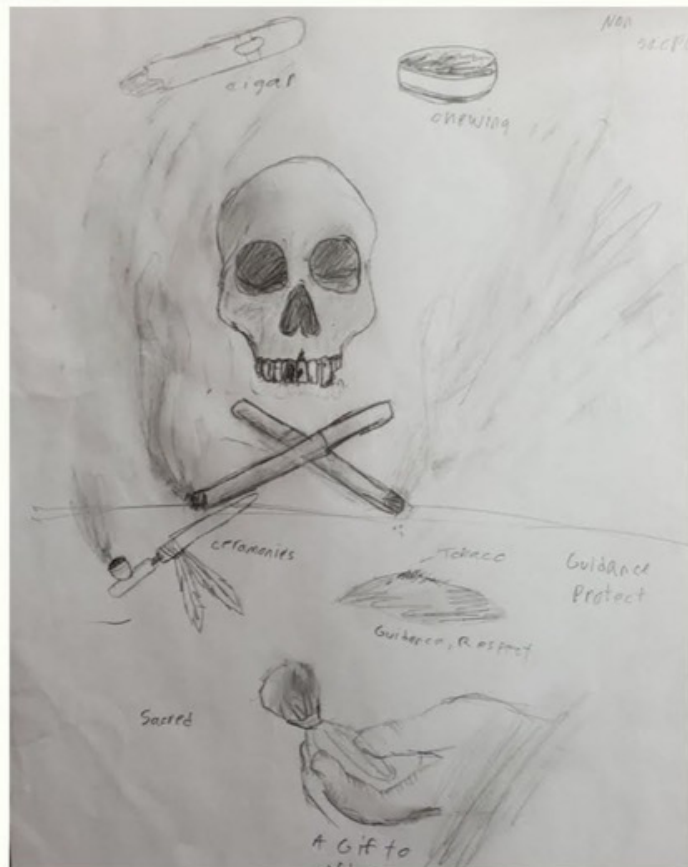

Grades 6-8:

First Place:

- Anthony Garcia

Second Place:

- Ayden Ramirez

Artwork by Anthony Garcia

For more information about DNIEC, please contact:
angeladavis@ncidc.org (707)460-6592